Class Will

We, the Class of 1962, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

As to such estate as it has pleased the Fates and our own strong hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

1. Gloria Andrus leaves her shorthand ability to Mr. Madsen.
2. Cathie Black hasn't been here often enough to leave.
3. Beverly Bean and Shirley Mould leave to be married.
4. Dale Brown grabs his drum and beats it.
5. Sandy Clark leaves Sonny in a corner.
6. Don Hudson leaves his "body-washing" ability to Jim Anderson.
7. Wayland Bauer and Mac McMillan leave their social "contacts" to Harlow Hadow and John Mallon.
8. Sharon Tubbs, Carol Roehl, Roberta Johnson, and Sandy Sanden leave their birthday parties to Barbara Stein, Marcia Watson, Leanne Martinsen, and Jeane Risch.
9. Marlene Fanning leaves her wild antics to Ingrid Westlund.
10. Bob Kertz leaves 15¢ to anyone who wants to purchase a hamburger from McDonalds.
11. George Corkhill leaves his athletic ability to Gary Morehart.
12. Henry Schmeling, Russ Pastorius, and Al Cashore leave their nightly escapades to Allen Gosda, Jerry Barfknecht, and Bruce Lippincott.
13. Allen Hahn leaves his melodious voice to Gene Hill.
14. John Brunett leaves all his basketball skills to next year's team.
15. Dick Longhenry leaves his car to Mr. Brockman along with his driving ability.
16. Nancy Boston leaves her queenly ways to Sheena in hopes they will help her rule her jungle.
17. Ruth Ann Nelson leaves her sweet disposition to Carole Haun.
18. Carolyn Smitley leaves Mr. Dabson without a pianist.
19. Gloria Sterner leaves her vivaciousness to Georgia Clark.
20. Carol Ochs leaves her sweet smile to Phyllis Nelson.
21. Ray Byers leaves his jungle movies to Vickie Rhoades.
22. Christian Rinck leaves the United States with best wishes from all.
23. Gerry Thompson leaves his suave manners and smooth ways to Kenneth Larsen.
24. Mike Sessler, Dick Jones, and Gary Anderson will their hunting abilities and gun cases to Jim Burkett, Matthew and Rodney Bollerud.
25. Gene Gavigan leaves his file to Mark Emigholz in case things get rough.
26. Sandy Sessler leaves for the farm.
27. Ruth Ann Wenslaff leaves to solve Wisconsin's traffic problems by becoming a meter-maid.
28. Kay Grams leaves her cackle to the Junior Chicks.
29. Wendy Sisson wills his halo to Keith Kohlin. We believe his has slipped.
30. Russ Wegner leaves his fighting female fans.
31. Florence Tegt leaves in a cloud of smoke.
32. George Frank leaves his tackling ability to Sherry Derr in hopes she'll get her man.
33. Kathy Rivers leaves her dates to Sheila Yttri in hopes that Sheila will have fewer problems next year.
34. Malcolm Burdick and Rollie Maxson leave their new book "Knock at the Door" to Al Crouch.
35. Russ Krueger leaves his tremendous physique to Pat Flynn - he needs it.
36. Dave Flood leaves his artistic ability to Dean Quade - who was born without any.
37. Jack Courtney and Skip Schwartz leave for the lake - Do you think they'll swim? Maybe their heads will.
38. Karen Larsen leaves her short skirts to Mary Agnes Manogue as they should just fit.
39. Sharon Kersten and Barb Barfknecht leave their physical education techniques to Carol Hanauska and Elaine Beran.
40. Judy Eggen leaves her fiery outbursts and nightly editing sessions with Mr. Brockman to next year's editor.
41. Bob Van Zandt leaves his love letters to anyone who is desperate.
42. Paulette Quasny leaves in a cloud of dust and flying gravel for another course of "Bird-watching."
43. Wally Brown couldn't wait to leave.
44. Janet Drew wills her coy and confident ways to Dick Cary.
45. Dale Rood leaves his knowledge to the administration.
46. Pat Brown leaves her office ability to Betty Barlass.

53. Alan Gross leaves his swinging hips to Mrs. Glenn.
54. Don Stewart leaves his wayward ideas to Jeff Bolden in case he runs out of them.
55. Lester Helgeson leaves his quiet manner to Leonard Lund - Seems Sonja likes the strong silent type!
56. Tom Henze leaves his artistic talent for sculpture to Linda Slauson so that she may carve herself a model man.
57. Barb Kenyon leaves her studious ways to Ron Webb. He looks like a deep thinker.
58. Pat Swenson wills a few inches of her height to Janet McNally - seems Mike is getting round shouldered.
59. Cathie McBride wills her happy-go-lucky ways to Virginia Wenslaff. We feel it's about time she had a good fling.

60. Mary Olson leaves her friendly ways and her quiet laughter to Vickie Clark; not that she isn't friendly enough - but that laugh!
61. Kris Hillestad leaves her merry voice and cheerful "hello" to Kathy Mori. Milton Union wouldn't be the same without them.
62. Jackie Rhoades leaves a few of her clothes to Linda Hull. It seems she has "just nothing to wear".
63. Carol Gunderson leaves her short memory to Delores Drays in case there is something she wants to forget.
64. Marcia Brown leaves in "Beulah" to cultivate a friendship.
65. A-n-n-n-nd Werfal! leaves for France to entertain the troops.

Besides these enforced gifts, we leave - not of necessity, but our own free will - our blessing, tender memories of our pleasant associations together, and our forgiveness for anything that we may not have exactly appreciated in the demonstrations of the past, and a pledge of friendship from henceforth and forever.

We can have one hell of a good time. We'll take fair this year and we can have one hell of a good time. We'll take a state fair this year and we can have one hell of a good time. We'll take a rent-a-wreck and go for the night, then we can take off to the fair grounds and get some fairly exciting [illegible] and blow everything we can take one hell of a big blast. We'll take a couple of [illegible] and seeing as we can't have a good time, I think we should go there one monday and leave Tuesday. We should be able to melt a few of those perils. They aren't [illegible] for something Hell—

DENI,
Don't forget all the fun we had in Biology and when we kept staring at Slauson's legs, and her all flustered. Be good and take it easy on the girls and don't do anything I would do.
